

MARK of the BEAST 666 – Part Eight: SERPENT / SNAKE WORSHIP = SUN WORSHIP

Romans 1:23-25 – And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, Who is blessed forever. Amen.

To start, we need to study again the first deception at the Garden of Eden. As we stated before, the devil uses camouflages to keep his worship hidden. The Sun and Nimrod were only a front used by lucifer to get multitudes to bow before him. However, the first camouflage he used to deceive Adam and Eve was the serpent. The very thing Satan used to deceive Adam and Eve became eventually one of the most sacred symbols of Sun worship! Instead of the serpent being a symbol of satan and deception, as the Bible instructs, the serpent became a symbol of the "great benefactor and healer" of mankind. The serpent was worshipped as the "god of Healing" and "Life-Restorer."

Genesis 3:4 - And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: "YE SHALL NOT SURELY DIE," was Lucifer's first lie to our first parents.

The serpent, the god of healing, was generally represented in the pagan arts entwined on a stick, staff or a stock of a tree.

Here we find the origin of the strange symbol that the American Medical Association (AMA) uses today. This medical insignia was originally the symbol of the Egyptian god Hermes, who we will see in a moment was Nimrod's father, Cush. And it's here we find the origin of the word hermetic. This ancient word found in classical literature actually derived from the ancient Egyptian god of medicine. This name is actually Chaldean and the Greeks and Egyptians adopted this god from the Babylonians. The very word hermetic means the hidden knowledge of magic, occult sciences, etc. Not only was the serpent worshipped by the ignorant pagans as "The great benefactor" for mankind, the serpent ironically enough was worshipped also as "The great enlightener." What did satan say to Adam and Eve besides, "Ye shall not surely die?"

Genesis 3:5 - For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

In The Two Babylons, by Hislop, p. 227, we read the following:

"Along with the sun, as the great fire-god, and, in due time, identified with him, was the serpent worshipped. In the mythology of the primitive world, says Owen, 'the serpent is universally the symbol of the sun. In Egypt, one of the commonest symbols of the sun, or sun god, is a disc with a serpent around it.

ra the sun god with the sun on his head

The original reason of that identification seems just to have been that, as the sun was the great enlightener of the physical world, so the serpent was held to have been the great enlightener of the spiritual, by giving mankind the 'Knowledge of Good and Evil. The ancient Mayans of the Yucatan in Mexico worshipped the serpent god under the name of Can. Can means "serpent" in the Mayan language, as Can or A-Can was the ancient Sumerian and ancient Scottish word for serpent. Here we find the origin of our word canny, shrewd or serpent-like. The Babylonians worshipped Can the serpent and Vul, the god of fire. The Romans simply combined the two words into 'Vulcan,' the Roman god of fire from when also comes our word "volcano"

The origin of the word "Vatican" also derived from two words. The Latin word "vatic" or "vatis" means "prophet or soothsayer". The combined word, "Vatican," appears to mean "divination by the serpent"!

Are there serpents at the Vatican? You better believe it!

Snake eye or reptilian eye. They are an occult right out in the open about it.

At the vatican, not sure why this snake has teeth that look like molars but none the less, why is it at the vatican museum?? A holy place with snake art. What does that tell you?

The symbol for Astrology is often shown in pagan arts as a serpent in a circular position with his tail in his mouth. This represented eternal life. **See the white circular serpent in the picture.**

There is the strong evidence from Scripture that the serpent originally had wings and flew, instead of having legs as the evolutionists say. Remember the serpent's curse for the part he played was that he would crawl on his belly and eat the dust of the ground leading us to believe he was not originally created to crawl on his belly. Gen. 3:14.

Hence, that feathered serpent that has been displayed in pagan arts and worshipped as the god of healing, is none other but "that old serpent, called the devil, and satan, which deceiveth the whole world." Revelation 12:9.

While we are talking about these mayan temples and the snake/sun worship, I want to share something Mrs. Joy shared with me from her memories of torture she endured at the mayan temples.

While she was on an altar being used as a gateway to bring in demons she saw two nephilim standing there talking to each other. One had a human body with an animal head and the other one was an upright lizard/serpent.

The Horned God

The oldest of the Old Gods, he is the Horned Hunter, the Lord of Death and Resurrection, and the Spirit of wilderness and the animal kingdom. For more than twenty thousand years He has been known and honored in every era and continent.

We have just thought these ancient drawings and carvings were wild imagination. But these things really existed. Look at some of these here and just imagine what Joy saw was an upright lizard serpent looking one while she was being tortured.

Osiris, Isis, Horus, which originated in the worship of nimrod (the sun), his wife semiramis (the moon), and tammuz (the morning star – venus).

The word Baal, so often seen throughout the Old Testament, was used to describe a god. The word means "Lord" or "Master" and in the Bible it was the name for the sun-god. Now, kings of pagan nations often were considered the incarnation of the sun-god, and to identify with the sun-god the kings would adopt the name of his god as Jezebel's father.

Kings 16:31 - And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him.

His name was "Ethbaal" which means "with Baal" or "Baal's man".

Just as ancient sun-kings pretended to be the ancient incarnation of the sun-god, so does modern witchcraft teach that the High Priest is the personification of the horned god pan, or osiris. And, the High Priestess of these covens, like ancient Sun worship, is the personification of Isis, Diana, or one of the other names this pagan goddess has throughout the world. Baal worship was basically a fertility cult that taught its followers that the Sun-god and Moon-goddess controlled the seasons, brought fertility, etc. Here we find the origin of the beliefs of Wicca.

“Three became the most universal number of deity. Sun worship is one of the most primitive forms of religion, and early man sometimes distinguished between rising, midday, and setting sun. The Egyptians, for example, divided the sun god into three deities: Horus, rising sun, Ra or Re, midday sun, and Osiris, old setting sun.”
— (Egyptian Deities, New International Encyclopedia. NY: Dodd, 1917. Volume 7, p. 529)

These are the three stages of the worship of the sun. “(1. New born at dawn. (2. Mature and full grown at 12 noon. (3. Old and dying at the end of the day.” — (Jordan Maxwell. BBC of America Quoted in Exposure Vol. 5, No. 6 1999)

All three of course were one divinity being the sun. So the main medium through which Satan was worshipped in Babylon was the sun which was worshiped as three gods. The rising and new born sun as it came to life, the mature and full grown sun at noon, and the dying sun as it set at the end of the day. Yet while they worshipped the sun as three gods, they were not three gods but one god! **This is satan’s mockery of the trinity. Not only in the stages of the sun but in nimrod/ashtoreth/tammuz.**

This is a Jewish New Year postcard, by artist Alain Roth in 1915. Amazingly revealing, the postcard image confirms the documentation found in the long controversial Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion. In the protocols the Jewish Zionist conspiracy is described as a symbolic serpent encircling the world! As if to emphasize that this is the correct understanding, the writing in Hebrew at the bottom of this Jewish New Year postcard is the word "Leviathan." The identity of Leviathan is revealed in Isaiah 27 as the serpent, or satan. Have a Happy New Year, indeed! VATICAN CITY—In an effort to strengthen their relationship and foster interfaith dialogue, Pope Francis reportedly welcomed the winged Mayan snake god Kukulcan to the Vatican this week as part of a month-long deity exchange program.

The Hurrian god Taru or Teshub slaying Illuyanka, the dragon of destruction. In ancient times the cataclysmic forces of nature were personified as a great cosmic dragon or serpent. The alternative historian Immanuel Velikovsky theorized that the dragon was equated with destruction because of their similarity to cometary bodies that once wrought havoc on earth.

Jason, the Greek hero here seen in the gaping mouth of a sea serpent. Like the mythical journeys of Hercules and Odysseus, Jason's journey simulated the movement of the sun through the heavens. In this instance, he has been both swallowed and disgorged by the serpent. Like the Biblical Jonah, he has lived in the belly of the serpent.

The serpent biting its own tail is commonly known as Ouroboros. In Norse mythology, the world serpent Jörmungandr grows so large that it encircles the Earth and bites its own tail. In this particular sculpture, the serpent's body rests upon and cradles human skulls, with a crescent moon above its head. The meaning of this should be obvious.

From the movie "Conan the Barbarian" – where do you think they get this stuff? We have not realized what all this meant and just thought it was art that added to the movie. It adds to the movie, but it is a message and it has meaning that we haven't realized. They put their gods in everything.

Snake representing the sun god nimrod is called ouroboros and “sophia the owl” is ashtoreth/queen of heaven and there is a lamp with fire or light in it representing tammuz/lucifer the light bringer.

Italian car manufacturer logo. The serpent logo of the Alpha Romeo car company, set in the symbol of the "Chalice," or downward pointing triangle, that has long been a womb symbol. In the Far East, this symbol is known as the Yoni. The word "one" derives from this word denoting the female womb.

..the ritual swallowing by the Snake is to be interpreted as a return to the womb - on the one hand because the Snake is often described as female, on the other, because entering the belly of the divine also carries a symbolism of return to embryonic state...It represents not so much a ritual death followed by resurrection as a complete regeneration of the initiate through his gestation and birth by the Great Mother - Mircea Eliade (Rites and Symbols of Initiation)

Is the great serpent swallowing the man or birthing him? In the latter case, we are to take it that humans are progeny of the Serpent, that is the Serpent Race.

The snake is represented in many products today. This is an energy drink.

That big Christian get together at the Washington Mall was a big ritual or mockery. Look at the old pope holding the t-shirt with the O in the form of an ouroboros which is the snake. In plain sight.

The seal of the theosophical society. The ouroboros is a circular symbol depicting a snake, or less commonly a dragon, swallowing its tail, as an emblem of wholeness or infinity. The Serpent biting its own tail is first seen as early as 1600 years BC in Egypt as a symbol of the sun, and represented the travels of the sun disk. From there it moved to the Phoenicians and then to the Greeks, who gave it its name, Ouroboros, which means devouring its tail. In alchemy, it represents the spirit of Mercury (the substance that permeates all matter), and symbolizes continuous renewal (a snake is often a symbol of resurrection, as it appears to be continually reborn as it sheds its skin.), the cycle of life and death, and harmony of opposites. As a symbol of the eternal unity of all things, the cycle of birth and death from which the alchemist sought release and liberation. It unites opposites: the conscious and unconscious mind. Alchemically, the ouroboros is also used as a purifying glyph. Egyptian ankh – key of life.

Nimrod, the God of nature, was symbolized by a great tree. But having been cut down and killed in his prime, he was now symbolized as a branchless tree stump, called the Yule Log.

yule log = nimrod the sun god

Then the great serpent came and wrapped itself around Nimrod (the stump). Miraculously, a new tree appeared at the side of the stump, which symbolized Nimrod's resurrection and victory over death." And that is where the christmas tree came from that semiramis/ashtoreth/queen of heaven told everyone to cut down and bring into their homes. (Jeremiah 10:3)

Here is the representation of nimrod from after he was killed and ashtoreth/queen of heaven made up the story of him being reincarnated over night into a full grown ever green tree. He is still honored today in most homes around the world and she is the star atop the tree.

CLOSING

Matt.10:16 - Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

Psalms 2:1-5 – Why do the heathen (nations) rage, and the people imagine a vain (foolish) thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against His anointed (Christ), saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Then shall He speak in His wrath, and vex (trouble) them in His sore (great) displeasure.

Haven't our world leaders who are like the kings back in Biblical times set themselves against God with all of this ancient idolatry continuing in our modern times? They mock God and laugh at us thinking we don't know about who they worship and all their dark secrets. But God will reveal all things and Jesus Christ is the Judge of all. God will have the last laugh!!!
