

FATHER'S DAY is PAGAN – Part Two

Last week we brought out how father's day is rooted in paganism. We ended with showing how the catholic church worships baal the sun god under the pretense of it being Joseph and Jesus but it is really nimrod/tammuz.

Just so we don't forget, the catholic church, at least those who are in the know at the top, are worshipping the sun god and the moon goddess.

In comparative mythology, sky father is a term for a recurring concept of a sky god who is addressed as a "father", often the father of a pantheon. The concept of "sky father" may also be taken to include Sun gods with similar characteristics. The concept is complementary to an "earth mother".

Americans resisted the holiday for its first few decades, viewing it as nothing more than an attempt by merchants to replicate the commercial success of Mother's Day, and newspapers frequently featured cynical and sarcastic attacks and jokes. However, the said merchants remained resilient and even incorporated these attacks into their advertisements. By the mid-1980s, the Father's Day

Council wrote, "(...) [Father's Day] has become a Second Christmas for all the men's gift-oriented industries."

And what do we know about christmas, it is in worship to the sun god, nimrod. Ashtoroth commanded the people to put silver and gold balls on the tree which represented nimrod's phallus. (See Jeremiah 10:4)

Astronomically, it is the longest day of the year, representing the god at full power. Although the hottest days of the summer still lie ahead, from this point onward we enter the waning year, and each day the Sun will recede from the skies a little earlier, until Yule, when the days begin to become longer again.

Since this sabbat revolves around the sun, a candle should be lit for the entire day, especially if it is cloudy or raining. The fire represents the sun and is a constant daily reminder of the power of the god. Rituals should be performed at noon, when the sun is highest in the sky. The best rituals to perform on Midsummer are those dealing with masculine issues, masculine energies, or issues dealing with solar influence.

TITANS:

In Greek mythology, the Titans (Greek: Τιτάν Titán; plural: Τιτᾶνες Titânes) and Titanesses (or Titanides; Greek: Τιτανίς Titanís; plural: Τιτανίδες Titanídes) were members of the second generation of divine beings, descending from the primordial deities and preceding the Olympian deities. Based on Mount Othrys, the Titans most famously included the first twelve children of the primordial Gaia (Mother Earth) and Uranus (Father Sky). They were giant deities of incredible strength, who ruled during the legendary Golden Age, and also comprised the first pantheon of Greek deities.

The pagans worship “mother earth” and “father sky.” Even if only participating in ignorance this is what we have done: Eating and drinking and spending money to these gods. Barbeque’s and drinking to these gods. They have chosen for the 3rd Sunday of June to be celebrated as father’s day. This is in honor of the sun god.

This is an ancient pagan feast.

Exodus 20:3 – Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

In Ancient Egypt, Horus was ruler of the sky. He was shown as a typical male humanoid, however, he appeared to have the head of a falcon. It is not uncommon for birds to represent the sky in ancient religions, due to their ability to fly.

The sky often has important religious significance. The daylight sky deities are typically distinct from the night-time sky (or "heaven of the stars") deities. Stith Thompson's Motif-Index of Folk-Literature reflects this by separating the category of "Sky-god" (A210) from that of "Star-god" (A250).

Any masculine sky god is often also king of the gods, taking the position of patriarch within a pantheon. Such king gods are collectively categorised as "Sky father" deities, with a polarity between sky and earth often being expressed by pairing a "Sky father" god with an "Earth mother" goddess (pairings of a Sky mother with an Earth father are less frequent). A main sky goddess is often the "queen" ("of heaven", for example).

Gods may rule the sky as a pair (for example, ancient Semitic [supreme] god El and the sky goddess Asherah whom he was most likely paired with).

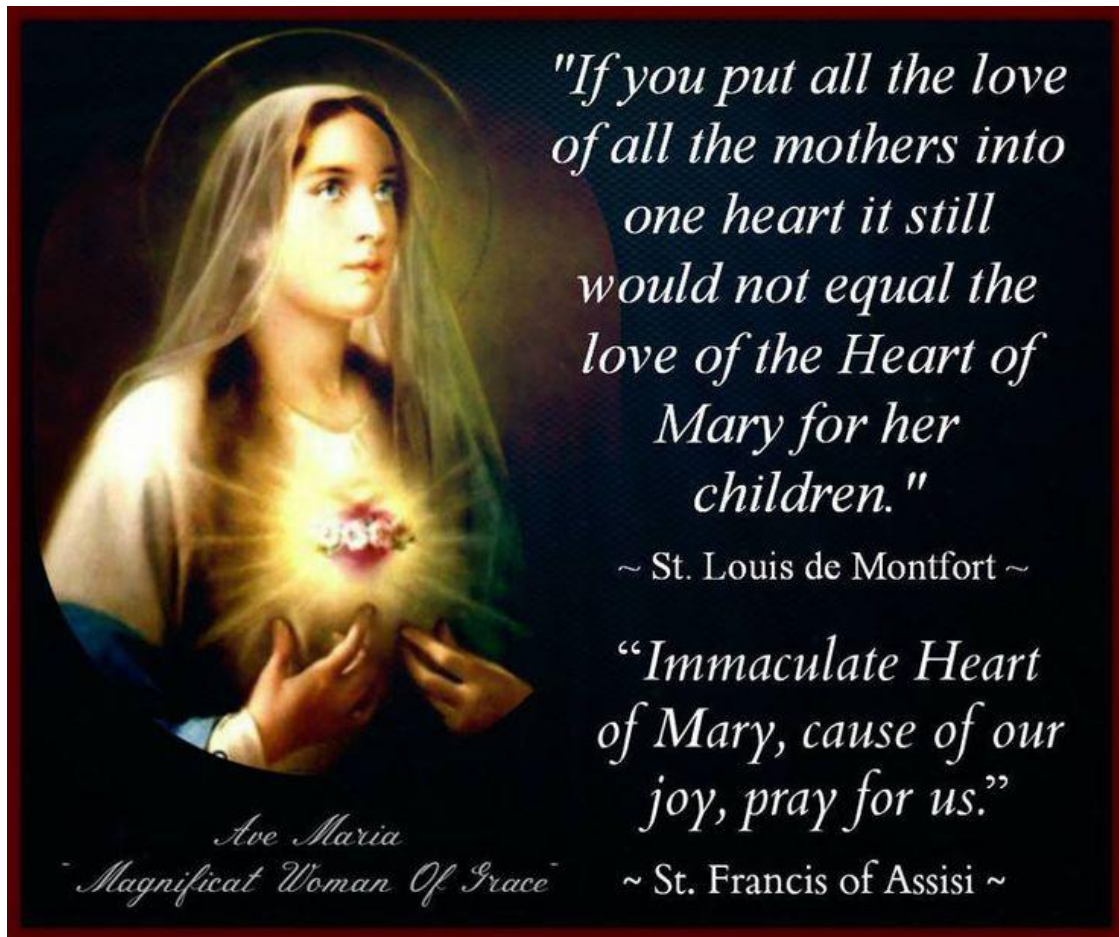

CATHOLICS – MOTHER’S DAY CAME FROM THEM:

The “mother church” – catholic church.

The earliest known history of Mother's Day dates back to the ancient annual spring festival that the Greeks dedicated to maternal goddesses. The occasion was to honor Rhea, wife of Cronus (sun god / baal) and the mother of many gods of Greek mythology.

Ancient Romans also celebrated a spring festival, called Hilaria, dedicated to Cybele, a mother goddess. Ceremonies in honor of Cybele began approximately 250 years before Jesus Christ was born. Celebrated on the Ides of March, offerings in the Temple of Cybele lasted for three days and included parades and games.

Early Christians (catholics) celebrated a day to honor mothers during a festival on the fourth Sunday of Lent. Originally the celebration was to honor the Virgin Mary, the Mother of Christ, however the holiday was later expanded in England to include all mothers. Thus the celebration was called Mothering Sunday.

The Baal Principality has been called god of a thousand faces.

Modern Paganism, also known as Contemporary Paganism and Neopaganism, is a group of new religious movements influenced by or claiming to be derived from the various historical pagan beliefs of pre-modern Europe.

In conclusion, for the early Neopagan movement it made perfect sense for individuals to seek to follow the gentle Earth mother because she had lain forgotten for nearly 2000 years, maligned and oppressed by the Abrahamic religions. (because they say that Christianity is male centric)

Since that time, it is the sky father that has lain forgotten, maligned at worst and at best ignored within Neopagan spiritual paths because he has been stereotyped to be of a similar nature to what became the Abrahamic Sky Father (they are speaking of the LORD God Almighty).

We have now reached a point within our history as modern Neopagans that we must seek the balance between the Earth and Sky, and for ADF Druids a balance that is driven by the Earth mothers and Sky fathers of the Indo-European pantheons.

Who is the god of this world?

II Cor. 4:3-4 – But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

atan is the god of this world. So who is running this world? Those that serve him. Under his principalities and demons in the natural realm are the masons, Jesuits, military leaders, world leaders, big business, those rich like Rothschild and Rockefellers and so on.

Catholic sun worship with Masonic crosses – represents the false trinity.

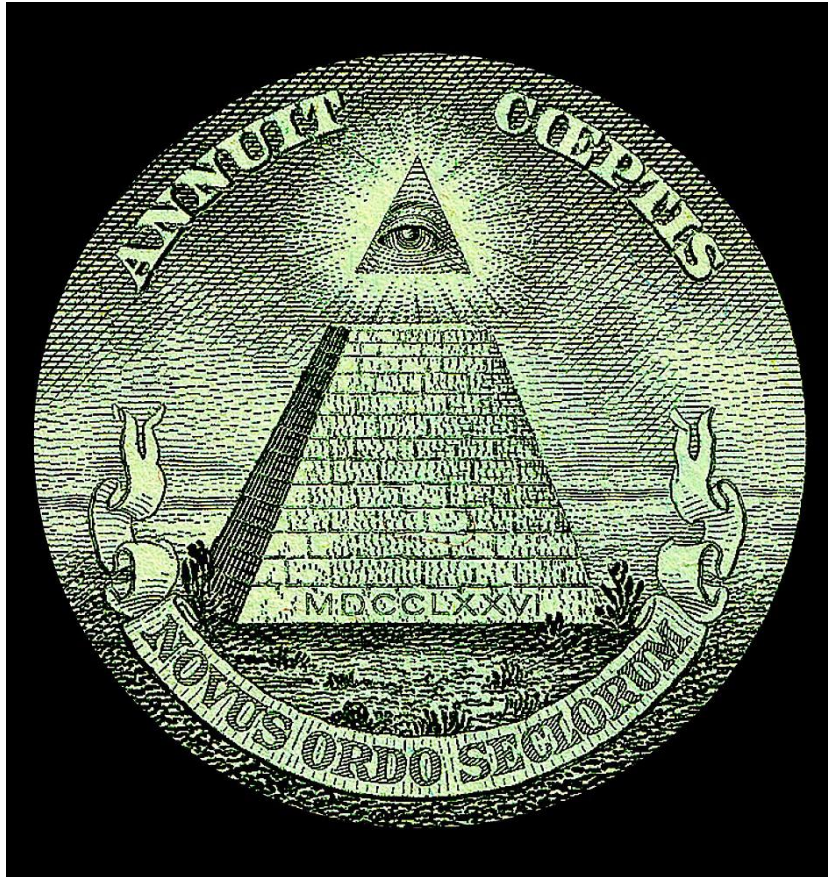

What about those presidents that enacted the day and then signed it into law? They are masons as most all of our governments are in secret societies and are in power by satan's hand. Yes, God is in full control but He has given this world over to their sins.

Nixon signed father's day into law. He's a mason and here he is at Bohemian grove back in the day. Remember all president's are kin to each other.

Let's not kid ourselves, this is about sun worship. Triangles are about sun worship and so is this eye with sun rays (horus/lucifer's eye). They (masons) designed our money.

Hunting peoples generally sacrificed game animals, while herding and farming peoples used domestic animals such as sheep, goats, chickens, and cattle. Certain types of animals were regarded as the most appropriate sacrifices for particular purposes or for particular deities. Dark-colored animals, for example, might be offered to deities of the underworld, while an all-white animal might be seen as the best gift for a sky god.

CLOSING

Colossians 2:8 – Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments (principles) of the world, and not after Christ.

Luke 14:26-27 – If any man come to Me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after Me, cannot be My disciple.

Lot of people don't want to pick up that cross. Oh they talk so tough about what they are going to do in the tribulation or what a big Christian they are right now but yet they live to please man because it is easier than standing apart – it feels good and it is fun. Too hard to stop doing what you've always done and this is what they use to cover over their sins in their minds: "God sees my heart." Oh you better believe He does and He knows your sin and your idols and your disobedience.

Luke 6:46 – Jesus speaking – And why call ye Me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

John 12:48 – He that rejecteth Me, and receiveth not My words, hath One that judgeth Him: the Word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.
