

EASTER and the CHURCH

Please show this to your children and teach them the ways of the Lord. This is just a video of some pictures I put together with messages for the church to learn where Easter came from and what Easter is and what God thinks about it.

Thanks you David Watt for putting this on facebook in a way everyone can understand: We ( Christians )need to wake and see that pagan holidays were Christianized, Why Were These Pagan Holidays and Festivals "Christianized"?

The Christianization of Pagan holidays began about the fourth century A.D. when the Roman Emperor Constantine, became (or feigned becoming) a Christian. In order to consolidate his rule, he incorporated the Pagan holidays and festivals into the church ritual - attracting the Pagans, but he gave the holidays and festivals new "Christian" names and identities - thus appeasing the Christians. Over the centuries, this practice has continued until the present time where we find the two systems, Paganism and Christianity, almost indistinguishable.

This is the Adversary's clever deception - Paganism dressed up in Christian clothes! It's still nothing more than Paganism, but the Christian churches have wholeheartedly embraced this deception.

Eostre is the Germanic Goddess of Spring. Also called Ostara or Eastre, She gave Her name to the Christian festival of Easter (which is an older Pagan festival appropriated by the Church), whose timing is still dictated by the Moon.

Semiramis was creating a mystery religion, and with the help of satan, she set herself up as a goddess. Semiramis claimed that she was immaculately conceived. She taught that the moon was a goddess that went through a 28 day cycle and ovulated when full and that she had come down from the Easter is a false goddess and has many names - she is in our Bibles as "queen of heaven" and Ashtoreth. Two of her symbols are the hare and eggs. The hare was also her familiar or demon. Witches often shape shift and take on the form of their familiar.

Mystery Babylon Tradition: Dying eggs in the blood of sacrificed infants on the altar to Easter (Ishtar) at sun-rise services for the pagan sun gods!

Eostre or Easter is a false goddess worshipped at springtime. Her priests would impregnate virgins on this day. The next year when the babies were about 3 months old they would kill them and dye eggs red in their blood. This was all done in worship to her.

Eostre/Easter is called the "queen of heaven" and she is abomination to a holy God.

The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke Me to anger. Jer 7:18

This is her familiar. A demon taking the form of a bunny.

Long before Christianity, the Pagan tribes of Europe worshipped a beautiful goddess of spring named Eostre. The Pagans were country dwellers who believed that everything had a spirit so there were gods and goddesses for all aspects of nature and life.

The ancient Pagan legend said that the goddess Eostre rescued a wounded bird in a snowy forest and to help the bird survive the winter, she transformed the bird into a rabbit. Because the rabbit is still a bird at heart, the rabbit built a straw nest and laid beautiful decorated eggs which got presented to the goddess Eostre in the spring as a gift of gratitude.

Feasts were held in Eostre's honor and her symbol was the rabbit. Spring represents new life and the rabbit with its eggs symbolize fertility.

Eostre/Easter saw a freezing bird in the woods and felt sorry for it and with her demonic powers turned it into a bunny rabbit that lays eggs.

How does this tie into the resurrection of Jesus Christ?

It doesn't.

O LORD, my strength, and my fortress,
and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto You from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

Jeremiah 16:19

In the year about 200 BC, a mystery cult known as Cybele cult began to appear in Rome. The Cybele cult flourished on today's Vatican Hill. Cybele (Semiramis in Rome) had a son named Attis (Tammuz in Rome) who was believed that he died and resurrected on the third day, each year, during the period from 22th March to 25th March. The Cybele cult celebrated this spring festival which began as the day of the blood on Black Friday, rising to a climax on the third day, in rejoicing over the resurrection.

Tammuz died from a gash to the thigh by a wild boar. His death (The Day of Blood/ Black Friday) was remembered on Friday. His resurrection (a fabrication) was celebrated 3 days later on Easter Sunday. His mother, Easter, ordered everyone to eat ham on the sun god's (Tammuz') day of resurrection. Churches are holding pagan practices even having "sun rise" services in honor of this sun god.

Does this sound familiar? It should. There never was a "Good Friday". Most research agrees that Jesus was crucified on a Wednesday. We don't celebrate Jesus' death, but rather we are commanded to remember Him and what He did for us at the cross by taking communion. Luke 22:19

The crosses or the t's on this bread (cakes) are in honor of the sun god Tammuz. He was killed by a wild boar but his mother, Easter, told everyone to celebrate his resurrection - Easter Sunday.

I pray that if your church is still participating in this that you would approach your Pastors and show them the truth. If they don't want to listen or receive what you show them, you should leave that church. God wants His children to come out of this Babylonian system of worship. Rev. 18:4.

Thanks for watching, God bless you.
