

WORD of FAITH MOVEMENT – Part Four: POSITIVE and NEGATIVE WORDS, WITCHCRAFT

Let's look at that passage again about death and life being in the power of our tongues:

Prov. 18:20-21 - A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled (with the harvest of their lips they are satisfied). Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

This is an Old Testament Scripture and they did not have the New Covenant yet. Jesus had not died for our sins and salvation yet. He had not taken those stripes on His body for our healing and deliverance yet. So what life and death is the Psalmist speaking of? Biblical life is usually talking about eternal life.

Matt.19:16-17 – And, behold, one came and said unto Him, Good Master (Good Teacher), what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And He said unto him, Why callest thou Me good? there is none good but One, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

New International Version

Matt.19:17 - "Why do you ask me about what is good?" Jesus replied. "There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, keep the commandments."

They left God out!! They never clarified that the only One Who is good is God. That is attacking the Godhead and the deity of Christ. He is God so He is good.

The way to preserve your life in the Old Testament was to obey God's commands, His laws, His prophets and priests. Obedience has always been the way to show God you love Him. God's ways lead to eternal life. Those that did not have knowledge of Him perished and that means died in their sins destined for eternity in the lake of fire.

From that verse we see that you can produce healthy fruit or rotten fruit with what you speak.

The following passage is a good example about what the fruit our tongue produces. I saw this passage on a blog from someone who was fed up with the “Word of Faith Movement.”

Prov.15:1-4 – A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words (harsh words) stir up anger. The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright (makes knowledge appealing): but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness. The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. A wholesome tongue is a tree of life (a healed tongue is a tree of life): but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit (but a perverse / deceitful / devious tongue crushes the spirit).

Don't we have the power with our words to soothe and comfort and bring peace into situations and other's hearts and lives? And just as easily can't we be spiteful and sarcastic and hateful and stir up anger and hate and fighting.

Eph. 4:29 - Let no corrupt communication (unwholesome talk) proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying (building up), that it may minister grace unto the hearers (that it may help those that listen).

Prov.12:14-19 - A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth (wise words): and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him (hard work brings rewards). The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise. A fool's wrath is presently known (quick tempered): but a prudent man covereth shame (stays calm when insulted / conceals dishonor / overlooks the insult). He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit (lies). There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health (brings healing). The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

NIV

Proverbs 12:17 - An honest witness tells the truth, but a false witness tells lies.
They left righteousness completely out of that verse.

Have you ever heard that saying, “sticks and stones may break my bones but words will never hurt me?” That is the biggest lie. Words certainly hurt.

Our words can cut like a sword. When two people are arguing, haven’t you heard things like this: he cut you down or she slammed you. We can cut people down and hurt them with our words. Or we can bring healing, comfort, encouragement and hope with our words. When you are a Christian and you use your words to edify or build someone up, you are letting the Holy Spirit flow through you. That’s how we are tools in God’s right hand, being His hands and feet and mouth piece to others.

POSITIVE and NEGATIVE WORDS

It irritates me to see people on fb say “I’m sending good thoughts or good vibes your way.

People who send things into your mind or send energy around, are witches. Witches like to try and control people's minds without their knowledge. This speaking positive and negative words is also a new age thing. When the focus is not on speaking or agreeing with God's Word then they have made it into a new age teaching.

There is more to this statement that we must understand. Who we belong to and what we believe has so much to do with what happens with the words we speak. Why do words have power?

John 6:63 - It is the spirit that quickeneth (gives life); the flesh profiteth nothing (human effort accomplishes nothing): the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

God's Word is alive and life bringing.

I will say here also that if you don't belong to God through Christ, then the things you are saying, the words you are speaking, the devil moves on them to manifest them in your life, whether seemingly positive or negative. He does this to keep people deceived and away from God. He will bless a deceived person just to keep them away from God. He blesses with money, fame, power and so on. Remember the things he tempted Jesus with, in the wilderness.

In this Word of Faith Movement they are not emphasizing that along with standing on God's Word we must continue in prayer as well. We cannot just cut prayer out of the equation and just take God's Word and start quoting it and expecting Him to do it or for it to manifest without a relationship with Him. That is just manipulation and using God and He doesn't work like that. Listen to this part of the definition of the Word of Faith Movement again: Distinctive Word of Faith teachings include physical, emotional, financial, relational, and spiritual healing or prosperity for those who skillfully manage their covenant with God.

You are supposed to love God and be intimate with Him, this is spiritual intimacy, not a sexual or flesh kind of intimacy. That sentence tells you that, that movement is a manipulation pure and simple. "Skillfully manage their covenant with God." What a shame.

Look at what Jesus told us:

John 15:7 - If ye abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

Speaking out His Word when you don't belong to Him will not produce the desired result.

Psalm 66:18 - If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me: (If I cherish iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me).

John 9:31 - Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth His will, Him he heareth.

You cannot bypass Jesus and just try to use God's Word "magically." That is new age, humanism and to put it plainly it is witchcraft.

We want to think and speak in line with God's Word, whether it is His written Word or a Word He has spoken to us. Sending thoughts or vibes is witchcraft. As a Christian you don't send anything anywhere. You can pray and intercede on someone's behalf and God can engage in their situation based on your prayers. You can encourage them by sharing Scripture with them.

Word Magic – how words can be used as magic spells. The freemasons and witches study God's Word and then twist it. The things they do are a perversion of God's Word. This Word of Faith Movement is based on God's Word but it is a perverted teaching. Let's take a look at the positive, negative word speak in witchcraft or new age.

It is all about drawing power, demonic power into their situations and having it go to work for them. When God is left out of the equation, then it is satan and the kingdom of darkness that go to work to deceive that person to make them think they actually did it on their own.

Magic powers contain a step known as visualization which is the same as positive thinking, positive imagery, dynamic imaging, creative imaging, and plain old imaging. Same process as the Law of Attraction, which is the use of mental imagery in order to utilize your own energy and power to obtain a desired objective. So if you think about it, this practice is in line with what we were told to do coming to this planet. We were told to be responsible for creating our life by our thoughts and focus, but to ensure we consider our thoughts carefully because if we think of causing harm to others or animals, we will be held responsible for our actions because our thoughts will manifest sooner or later. As we have entered the Golden Age, we have been told that our thoughts will begin to manifest much faster as the energy is increasing.

Ask, Believe Receive is based on Mark 11:24 but this teaching has left God out. So it is a new age perversion.

This is based on Mark 11:24 but also leaves God out. When you leave Him out, if what you visualize or think on manifests then you can be sure that satan is the one who caused it to manifest so that you will believe you have godlike power without even loving or serving God.

This is new age, witchcraft teaching. Nothing to do with God here.

CLOSING

The law of attraction was being taught on this Oprah show. Haven't you heard people say the universe is working for me or talk about "good karma." This is where it is all coming from.

Masonic law, had its roots in "Deism." It was "deism" which transformed the Masonic guilds in Europe from an operative into a speculative fraternity. The Masonic Lodges, under the influence of the Jewish Humanist-Intelligentsia Movement, adopted "natural law" as its moral law. It is a law which appeals to the carnal nature of man, because there is no Superior Being to whom one is responsible. In reality, in Freemasonry, as in Judaism, man becomes his own god.

So now you can see how that phrase Aleister Crowley taught fits in "do what thou wilt" shall be the whole of the law. They believe they are gods and have their own laws and they believe even God is subject to those laws.
