

CORONAVIRUS Pt. 33 – THE NUMBERS, DOCTORS and NURSES SPEAK, PCR TESTS

In a time of universal deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary act.

~ George Orwell

Boy is it ever. If you speak the truth you are a hater. If you go against the narrative you are now considered a threat against the government. Think about Jesus, it has never been ok to share about Him. The world hates Him and He is the truth. Most of His early disciples were murdered for speaking up about Him. If you speak out about the beast system, our world governments, they are going to have a problem with you. And as we draw nearer to the end, true Christians will have more and more trouble with the government because it is the power system that the antichrist will rise to power out of and rule by it.

DOCTORS and NURSES SPEAK OUT

Disclaimer: It is very sad that it is so hard to find someone who is giving 100% truth. Sometimes they will give truthful information but then say an untruth or say things that go along with certain parts of the agenda. For example I watched a video of a lady who supposedly was giving truth but then she still supported vaccines. To me that just killed anything else she had to say. It made me think there was an agenda with what she was doing. And all the people that go along with the luciferic term “herd” immunity. That bothers me because I know they say we are cattle and useless eaters. It is really ok to just say immunity. Or that all of the people can acquire immunity just by exposure to the disease. And of course those at high risk, they are the ones that should stay home and take extra precautions. But to quarantine the whole world never should have been done. Sometimes in our passion to expose all of this we forget that “they” know all of this full well. But they knew that if they stood up with their credentials (even if those credentials are bogus) that everyone would just believe them and do what they say. They knew that their nano program (the morphing of people into transhumans by their chemtrails, vaccines, chemicals, implants, metals etc.) was far enough along to go ahead and run this event on the world. They have been running false flags and hoaxes on the whole world for a long time now. We are at war with the beast system: our governments and militaries, but we have not been fully aware of it and even now only those of us who are awake are aware of it.

Thank you David K. for sharing the following video:

Furloughed RN: Where are all the patients? This was back in the beginning of the plandemic, April 2020.

*Please play from 20:56 to 22:55 Jessica, an RN shares how the hospitals in Cleveland, Ohio are empty and she was laid off. *(about 2 min's)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xhrzisFfuEE>

I remember just before they started all the lockdowns here in the U.S. that Ms. Patricia had shared that at her job they were laying off a bunch of nurses. Seems like there was a lot of preplanning to set the system up for failure.

This has clearly been Government overreach, stomping on our constitution. We thought our healthcare industry was really learning how to help us. And we can't be mad at dr's and nurses, they have trusted the government and believed they received a true and right education. None of us realized how far reaching the luciferian network was. They control all governments. They have placed their teachers in the universities, colleges, hospitals etc. All of their organizations are working together to bring in the New World Order.

*Please play this video from 1:98 to 13:46 Defending Utah Radio had an anonymous nurse share what was going on in the hospital that she works at. She said she was a nurse for 30 years in Utah. Her voice is disguised in this video for her protection. They were getting new procedures and policies daily. And many of them make no sense. She can see people acting irrational and harm is being done. All patients are labeled covid until it can be ruled out and once it is ruled out they do not go back and change the number, they still count that person as a covid patient. She said they are told not to question anything but just to do what they are told. When a patient dies she said the dr. would put the main thing that led to their death on the death certificate. Like coming in with a heart attack or some type of bleed. If they were covid positive then that gets listed as the cause of death. Even if they were a brittle diabetic or morbidly obese or had other complications, covid is listed as what they died from. (((((Boosting the number count by doing this.)))))) There is a push to put covid as the cause of death. There was a patient in a nursing home under hospice care and they somehow got a covid test for that person. She questioned why would you give someone on hospice a covid test anyway? She said people wants the facts but under law she can't give them. Each practioner is operating under their own license and can say, no, I'm not doing that because it isn't ethical. But there is a different set of rules when you work for a facility or an entity. All preventative care at this moment is shut down. She heard 2 cardiologist saying people are probably staying home having silent heart attacks. Organ transplants were shut down too. I think the true data is hidden. Some of the debacle lies in the testing. There are so many different patents out with different tests and some are done in house and some are sent out to a lab. There are false positives etc. Co-morbidities are not being considered in the equation at all. They are treating every patient and staff member as if they have no immune system. She talked about how no one was talking about how to boost your immune system. Get vitamin d, get sunshine. Stop the bad habits that aren't good for you. Eat healthy. Fear and stress weaken your immune system. Because of how they are doing all of this our country is primed for them to come in and take control.*(about 12 min's)

Thank you Cory W. for sharing that video.

She said she believes the “true data” is hidden. I believe that too. They don’t want us to know the real numbers because it would shame them and blow this whole thing wide open.

She said they were getting new procedures daily. This helps with confusion and so that you don’t question things just do what you are told. I would imagine some of the newer nurses might not pick up on any of this but those with many years under their belt should notice when things are shady.

And with all of the garb they are having to wear, could there be nefarious people mixed in?

All patients are labeled covid until it can be ruled out and once it is ruled out they do not go back and change the number, they still count that person as a covid patient. Now you can understand some of the number manipulation they are doing to boost up to the hugely inflated numbers that they report.

On the death certificates, it doesn't matter what the ultimate reason of death was, if the patient had covid then that is what is recorded as the reason of death. Never mind if it was a massive heart attack.

There is a push to put covid as the cause of death. Fear and stress weaken your immune system. They know all of this and that's why they have been playing this on the fake media non-stop to pump up the fear so that you can be in a weakened state and more susceptible to catch something or so their vaccine can really hit you harder.

She said some of the debacle lies in the testing and she mentioned false positives.

Let's talk about the false positives for a moment. Betty H. shared the following e-mail with Tony and he shared it with his address list. This is very insightful and goes along with some information from the WHO (World Health Organization) that Tony sent also on this very subject. They updated some procedures around the PCR tests as of January 13, 2021.

Betty shared: World Health Organization released a guidance memo on December 14th, warning that high cycle thresholds on PCR tests will result in false positives. The cycle threshold or CT value is the number of times they have to run a replication sequence to increase an incredibly small amount of DNA or RNA material to get it to a size where it can be identified. While this information is accurate, it has also been available for months, so we must ask: why is WHO reporting it now? Is it to make it appear the vaccine works?

I will expand on this....

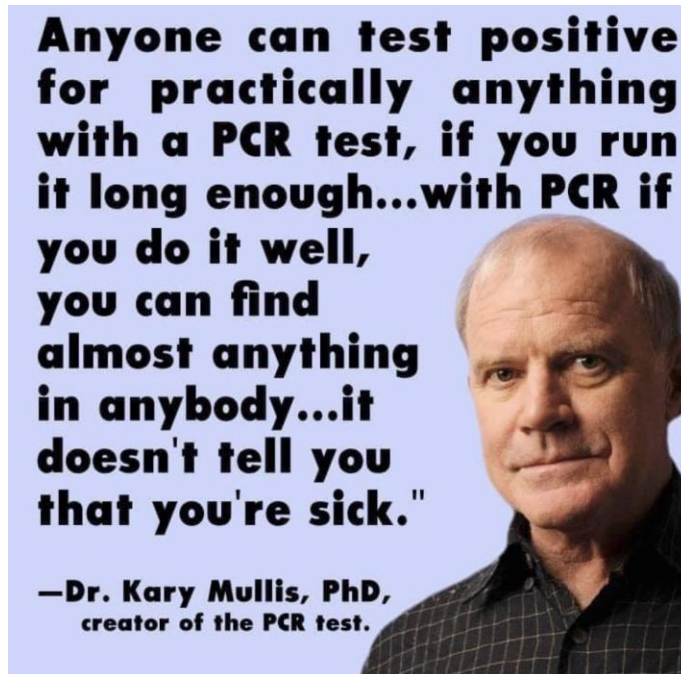

The “gold standard” Sars-Cov-2 tests are based on polymerase chain reaction (PCR). PCR works by taking nucleotides – tiny fragments of DNA or RNA – and replicating them until they become something large enough to identify. The replication is done in cycles, with each cycle doubling the amount of genetic material. The number of cycles it takes to produce something identifiable is known as the “cycle threshold” or “CT value”. The higher the CT value, the less likely you are to be detecting anything significant. (You had to run it a high number of times to find anything at all.)

This new WHO memo states that using a high CT value to test for the presence of Sars-Cov-2 will result in false-positive results. To quote their own words.....

Users of RT-PCR reagents should read the IFU (Information for use) carefully to determine if manual adjustment of the PCR positivity threshold is necessary to account for any background noise which may lead to a specimen with a high cycle threshold (Ct) value result being interpreted as a positive result.

They go on to explain....The design principle of RT-PCR means that for patients with high levels of circulating virus (viral load), relatively few cycles will be needed to detect virus and so the Ct value will be low. Conversely, when specimens return a high Ct value, it means that many cycles were required to detect virus. In some circumstances, the distinction between background noise and actual presence of the target virus is difficult to ascertain.

Of course, none of this is news to anyone who has been paying attention. That PCR tests were easily manipulated and potentially highly inaccurate has been one of the oft-repeated battle cries of those of us opposing the “pandemic” narrative, and the policies it’s being used to sell it to the general public. Many articles have been written about it, by many experts in the field, medical journalists and other researchers. It’s been commonly available knowledge, for months now, that any test using a CT value over 35 is potentially meaningless. (Remember the nurse last week and what he said about the PCR tests.)

Anyone can test positive for practically anything with a PCR test, if you run it long enough...with PCR if you do it well, you can find almost anything in anybody...it doesn't tell you that you're sick. – Dr. Kary Mullis, PhD, creator of the PCR test.

Dr Kary Mullis, who won the Nobel Prize for inventing the PCR process, was clear that it wasn't meant as a diagnostic tool. And, commenting on cycle thresholds, once said: If you have to go more than 40 cycles to amplify a single-copy gene, there is something seriously wrong with your PCR.

*I can share from personal experience that probably at least 10 years ago I had a dr. run a pcr test on me because of constant sinus issues. He told me I had a staph infection. So he began to treat me with antibiotics and ointment in my nose. This went on for a while and he kept rechecking me periodically but the "staph infection" never cleared up. Finally I just told him it was enough. What he was doing certainly wasn't clearing anything up and I was just over all of it. They act like staph is so deadly but apparently not, I'm still here.*

It should also be noted that Kary Mullis died just before the pandemic started on August 7th 2019 just three days before Epstein allegedly died. Convenient when you consider that Mullis was a very vocal critic of Fauci and his cohorts!

The MIQE guidelines for PCR use state:

CT values higher than 40 are suspect because of the implied low efficiency and generally should not be reported," This has all been public knowledge since the beginning of the lockdown. The Australian government's own website admitted the tests were flawed, and a court in Portugal ruled they were not fit for purpose. Even Dr Anthony Fauci has publicly admitted that a cycle threshold over 35 is going to be detecting "dead nucleotides", not a living virus.

So this could be finding residues from something you had a long time ago and were simply still inside you! Maybe from a cold last month or last year. These people also are very careful to go on public record to agree with the doubts registered publicly.

The WHO is an institution of record. The global controllers know that the masses of humanity have short memories and short attention spans. They are half way admitting this now, because in years to come when this misery ends, and the lie of it is being broken down, the WHO will have a file of record that they “warned” of the false positives. Just like early on, March-April, Dr. Fauci contributed to an article in the New England Journal of Medical Science, which is a hard and historical record of medical science that it appears that covid-19 is a virus akin to the flu with about the same severity.

Again so years down the road when this is all exposed, he will be on medial record as saying that it wasn’t any more dangerous than the flu. Just like also early on, any MSM article about covid-19 had the caveat at the end that a majority of people infected would only see mild or no symptoms at all. These institutions of Public record are creating their on plausible deniability in case in the future they are all brought to task in some form of a Nuremberg trial.

Despite all this, it is known that many labs around the world have been using PCR tests with CT values over 35, even into the low 40s. So why has the WHO finally decided to say this is wrong? What reason could they have for finally choosing to recognize this simple reality? Apart from constructing their future defense case that is.

The answer to that is potentially shockingly cynical: We have a vaccine now. We don’t need false positives anymore!!! It’s as simple as that! The cash cow and DNA modifying toolset is ready to distribute to infect as many people as they can fool into taking this vaccine (which technically shouldn't even be called a vaccine) in as short a time as possible. Their vaccine also comes in two hits. Administer Jab One and they falsely massage the case and death figures to show, "Hey look! Our vaccine works" so they can use their monolithic mainstream media networks to pump out the brainwashing rhetoric to the sheeple, people that will blindly follow it and go and join the rank and file getting their first jab while the others watch and wait for the feedback.

A falsified feedback loop with all the fake results and criminal death certificates that have been cynically tampered with and falsified to show an easily fooled public that "it's safe" soon after they will soon line up for Jab 2 which we can only begin to guess what will be in that concoction and what it's designed to do to our bodies and DNA.

So nationally , the system has produced its miracle cure. And after everyone has been vaccinated, all the PCR tests being done, will be done "under the new WHO guidelines", and running only 25-30 cycles instead of 35+. Lo and behold, the number of "positive cases" will plummet, and we'll have confirmation that our miracle vaccine works.

After months of flooding the data pool with false positives, miscounting deaths "by accident", adding "Covid19 related death" to every other death certificate where they knew that Covid was not the cause of death...they can stop. The create-a-pandemic machine can be turned down to zero again....as long as we all do as we're told that is! Any signs of dissent, masses of people refusing the vaccine, for example – and the CT value can start to climb again, and they bring back their magical disease.

CLOSING

If you are having a problem understanding how these lies are being orchestrated on the whole world, then you might not understand what a New World Order means. It is one government for the entire world. The media is a mouth piece for their propaganda. We are at war. Anytime propaganda is being used on you it is because they need you to be deceived. In this country it is so bad they legalized propaganda back under the Obama administration. Every country will do the same things and follow orders from one source. That is the antichrist and his system that he rises to power on which is the beast system also known as our world governments. They will be in unison just like we are seeing now. All world governments are following this agenda. Some of what is going on at this stage is the breaking down of America and other nations which seemed to be free, breaking us down into socialists/communist countries so that we fit nicely into the beast system. The government is telling everyone what to do, as well as continuing their narrative in spite of those of us who know the truth. If you don't understand why they are doing this and who they are and what their goal is then I suggest you go back and listen to part one of this teaching series.

Job 9:24 – The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: He (the Lord) covereth the faces of the judges thereof (He blinds the eyes of the judges); if not, where, and who is he (If He's not the One Who does it, then who is)?

Because this world has turned away from God, He has turned it over to its sin. Our judges, our governments, were always supposed to judge with Godly, righteous judgment. They are all corrupt serving satan boldly now. They take bribes and serve themselves at the expense of the people. Think about it, they are not ignorant of the things we have been exposing here.

Isaiah 29:15-16 - Woe unto them that seek deep (go to great depths) to hide their counsel (their plans) from the LORD, and their works are in the dark (who do their evil deeds in the dark), and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us (who will know what's going on)? Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay (You turn things upside down, as if the potter were thought to be like the clay!): for shall the work say of Him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of Him that framed it, He had no understanding (Can the pot say to the potter, "You know nothing"?)?

God sees everything they have been up to. And even though these things are prophesied, and must come about, God still brings judgment on the ones who carry it out.

Mark 1:15 - The time is fulfilled (the time has come), and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel (Good News).

Jesus preached those words 2000 years ago. Now more than ever the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. Heed His words and come to Him, He is the way to eternal life of blessing and happiness and peace.
