

CORONAVIRUS Pt 36: THE VACCINE, YOUR DNA, MARK of the BEAST

Youtube pulled part 35 saying it was due to “medicial misinformation.” There were some hard hitting videos in that message about the truth of all of this of course. Please remember our website where we house all of the messages.

In February 2019 long before the so called corona virus was even created I had a dream, which I believe was from the Lord. I heard these words "The Mark of the Beast will be implemented in schools alongside vaccines not this school year but the next." I just saw Netanyahu is now saying children in Israel need to be chipped when school starts this year to monitor them for social distancing. President Trump is putting out his plan now to start school back. The mark is a combination of things. What u said made a lot of sense but if the testing and taking your dna and the vax that changes your dna and gives u animal and satanic bloodline and all kinds of demonic things can u still enter Heaven? U wont be able to buy or sell if u refuse the test. People r losing their jobs now. U dont know what they r cramming into your nose while they r getting your dna.

You won’t be able to buy or sell if you refuse the test. People are losing their jobs now. You don’t know what they are cramming into our nose while they are getting your dna.

Answer: We don’t know if these dreams are truly from the Lord. Do not forget about satan’s a.i. system and how he is retrieving our thoughts and sending thoughts. Many are sharing dreams and visions that have nothing to do with God. Netanyahu wanted to chip the children but that has not been implemented or accepted at this time. We will address the satanic blood issue in a minute. I don't put anything past the luciferians. They have had most of our dna for a long time already. Have you ever had your blood drawn for lab work or given blood or received a transfusion of blood? I have. They take a huge blood sample from new born babies too. The rest I will answer in a minute.

I do y think your aware that the vaccine has chips in it and it will change your dna 🧬 and you won't be able to work without it but it sell and if people are smart they won't get tested either they want your dna for the beast system

Answer: If you have your baby in the hospital, they save the cord blood. They already have most of our dna if you've ever been to a dr and had tests run at all then they have your dna. The nano is not just in the vaccines. It is sprayed on us through chemtrails among other things. I believe it is in most medicines too. It is a handy little weapon of choice for them. Although with the great push for these vaccines, then you know these things are really loaded. I missed the piece of information that they revealed in the beginning, point blank stating the tests were contaminated with the virus from the CDC labs. That's true. I found that in research. Do your best to avoid the tests and the vaccine.

Pastor [redacted] on here said the Lord told him the vax for this cv WILL be the Mark of the Beast. He said they already have designed a little luminescent tattoo type thing that they will put on your hand to show that you've received it. I saw a video with a picture of it. Whether it starts off that way or not, it will prevent buying or selling, so BEWARE!

Luciferase (how obvious can you be right?), that the online truthers are talking about has been around at least since the 80's. This could be their move, the year (2021) they decide to use it or a chip implant or both. Lot of chatter online about both.

Three Hearts Church there's nano chips in the vaccine that will immediately change your dna the information is out there don't take it not to mention the patent has 060606 it looks awfully close to the mark to me!

The old vaccines were also being used to change our dna. Medicines are doing that too. The nano is in everything as well as being sprayed on us. There is a patent for a microchip that you can arrive at 666 by doing  $6 \times 6 \times 6 = 216$  and so back engineering it to figure how to arrive at that number. Not sure it will go like that though. They are pretty straight forward in other areas about their 666's and I believe the mark will be straight forward as well. No one is going to get caught on a "technicality" and accidentally make the mistake of taking it and then going - OH NO! I forgot to look at every angle and use witchcraft math to see if it added up to 666!

Just like everyone has a choice to make, to accept Jesus Christ or reject Him....those that are still here at the time of the mark of the beast will have a choice to make, accept satan or reject him and have their heads cut off.

The patent that has 060606 was from WIPO (World Intellectual Property Organization) which goes along with crypto currency. They can't just secretly hide stuff in a vaccine and then after people take it they say, surprise! you just took the mark of the beast. They might want to do that but that is not how God works. He isn't going to allow satan to be so sneaky that people can't even realize it is the mark. More than half the people in this world don't have smart phones or computers and are not able to do any of this kind of research. They aren't going to be tricked into taking the mark.

Pastor Cherie Beltram, do you believe that all people who take the vaccine now, (including born again Christians,) will become unredeemable and be left behind in the rapture and eventually be cast into hell? I ask because I understand that this shot will change peoples' DNA, causing them to become transhuman. This question has been tormenting me for quite some time, in regards to those who take the vaccine. I know of at least two of my family members that are planning to take the vaccine and will not listen to reason. I am praying that God will supernaturally block their efforts to get the vaccine. Please advise. Thank you for bringing us the truth about the creatures of the underworld.

Answer: Wouldn't nano in the chemtrails also be considered as changing us into transhumans? It self assembles and runs a program against our dna, against our immune system.

The vaccine will change a person's DNA. Then the DNA will not be recognized in the lambs book of life.

Ffion Jay: The vaccine will change a person's DNA. Then the DNA will not be recognized in the Lamb's Book of Life.

ANSWER:

None of this is not Biblically sound. I have seen these type of comments circulating around. There are many people saying and teaching unbiblical things. A lot of this is scare tactics and coming from people that don't know and study God's Word. I will say again, as I have said many times that vaccines are being used against us. Vaccines are one of the luciferians weapons of choice. There are so many evil agendas packed into and being accomplished through vaccines. Remember Bill Gates said vaccines were a good way to bring down the population number. That's because many die off and they are sterilizing us through them also. If you have not heard any of this, I will have the links to the vaccine information in my notes and in the info box on youtube.

We are getting very close to the mark of the beast with these vaccines because jobs are already on the line. Take the shot or find another job. They are doing the same thing with the tests in some places too, take the test or you can't work here any longer. But no, this is not the mark of the beast. Let me be clear, the mask is not the mark of the beast. The test is not the mark of the beast. The vaccine is not the mark of the beast. All of those things are weapons that they are using against us but none of them is the mark. So just being tested or even taking the vaccine will not cause you to be left behind from the rapture. If you are lukewarm, a carnal Christian or not saved at all then you won't make the rapture.

The rapture is for those that obey Christ and are beloved of Him. His bride. If you don't read His Word and study it, that's not you. If you don't pray daily, that's not you. If you don't praise and worship God daily, that's not you. If you don't serve in His church or Kingdom at large, that's not you. If you don't give to support true Kingdom work, that's not you. If you don't fast, that's not you. If you don't witness to others about Christ, that's not you. If you have an opportunity to fellowship with the saints and you don't – then that's not you. These are some of the things that mark a true Christians life. If you are lacking or failing in some of those areas, ask God for His help. Let Him know you want to be the bride of Christ and to be worthy of Him.

I still believe that the mark will be an outward mark that is visible to the naked eye. There may be something injected into the body, like a chip, that is paired with an outward mark.

The way you become unredeemable is by not accepting Jesus Christ as your Savior before you die. Once you receive Him you are then to live a life of obedience doing all that He commanded us to do so that you are worthy of Him. Thinking you are saved and continuing to live a life of disobedience will not get you into heaven.

Blaspheming the Holy Spirit will cause you to be unredeemable.

Taking the mark of the beast will cause you to be unredeemable.

It is great that so many are aware of the scripture about the mark of the beast and are watching out for it. It is interesting that everyone knows that scripture, even the unsaved.

What if you convinced yourself that this vaccine or the test was the mark of the beast. You didn't take it, and then later on, along comes the mark and you don't recognize it because you thought they already rolled it out. You thought we were already in the tribulation and past the halfway point because surely the vaccine or the test were the mark. Be careful who you listen to and what you believe.

It seems like what everyone is wondering is if this vaccine is the mark of the beast. I don't believe that. It will change your dna. These mRNA vaccines have synthetic dna in them and if you take them your dna will forever be changed. They have nanotechnology as well. And loads of chemicals and animal viruses, human dna etc. There's a good chance adrenochrome is contained in the vaccines based on some information circulating online.

For most of us, our dna has been under attack for quite a while. Many of us have had vaccinations when we did not know better and were injected with animal dna and human dna right into our bloodstream. These new vaccines have the same things in them and many extra things as well. This one and future ones are getting deadlier I believe. I would avoid these vaccines. They are weaponized against us. They are touted to us as being good and to bring protection but with the occult, that means it is just the opposite. They are meant to kill, harm and break us down. Some of my research showed that they actually make you more susceptible to getting sick by making your immune system hyper reactive to the very thing that the vaccine was supposed to protect you from.

Remember the mark of the beast goes on or in the right hand or on or in the forehead.

Rev. 13:16-18 - And he (the false prophet) causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in (on) their right hand, or in (on) their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

These vaccines are not going in the forehead and they are not only being given in the right arm either. Some people are getting them in the left arm. The serum goes throughout your body. It doesn't just stay in the right arm or just go to the head and stay there. You could argue and say the nano goes in the bloodstream and attaches to the neurons of the brain so it is then in your forehead. Well so does the nano that is being sprayed on us. Undisclosed deceit about something is not true consent.

1 Cor.15:50 – Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

God will call our spirits back home to Him when He's ready. Our spirit does not consist of dna or blood.

God knows those that are His and no tampering by satan can change that.

For those of you who took vaccines in the past or maybe even those that have taken these vaccines. Pray and ask for God's mercy to cleanse you from them and to protect you from the harmful effects. Ask Him to restore your dna and to turn off and remove any nanotechnology. Have compassion for those that are taking these vaccines as many still don't know a thing about any of this. Many so called Christians are actually wanting these vaccines.

Pastor Erustus shared on this subject as well: I still believe the vaccine is not the mark and we are not in the tribulation period. To me these are just signs or birth pains in preparation of the Antichrist who will bring the whole world in one governance and economic sanctions or control that will make it easier to implement the mark. If one is living right with God, no need to fear since God protects His church. Many are panicking because they live a double standard life and they love this world with it's pleasure more than loving God. The Bible records perilous times will come where diseases and sickness will come but no vaccine. I think at times God allows tough times in this world so that we come back to our senses and draw back to God in repentance. From my observation some evil rich worldly leaders and business people wanted to make good money out of this corona lie and control countries across the world. But it's like God is frustrating their evil schemes. I believe it has not worked out the way they expected. But still they are planning evil against humanity. Our refuge is only in Christ Jesus.

It matters who you listen to. It matters what pastor or what teacher you sit under. It matters that you study God's Word for yourself and test the spirits to see if they are of God. That means that whatever is being said and whatever is being done and attributed to God, you look at it under the leading of the Holy Spirit and check it against God's Word and see if it really is of God and if it really lines up with His Word. If it does not then you have to disregard it. We have a lot of people out there teaching and preaching who were never called or ordained by God.

Because times are scary – most have tossed the rapture out the window.

I still believe in the rapture. I am aware of the Jesuits trying to infiltrate the churches and teach false doctrine. One of the things they are fighting against is the rapture. I see it in God's Word and have taught on it as well. I have even gone back and looked over all of it again with the mindset that it was planted, manipulated and taught deceptively on purpose. I still could not discount it and walk away from it. There was too much that I could not ignore. One teaching that I will bring when we take a break from this series is about the Jesuit deception that there is no rapture. We are gonna talk about that so everyone can understand that better. I have said it before, satan has a man / woman on every base. He has his teachers teaching the rapture, he has teachers teaching a mid-trib rapture and he has some teaching post trib. He has all the bases covered. This is all about confusion and deception and to mess up your walk with Christ.

CLOSING

What I want to make clear to you today is, we have to live ready to go and be with the Lord Christ Jesus no matter when it is that God calls us home. I know that some of you listening right now won't live to see the rapture, some of you will. Many of you will face the mark of the beast. If you miss the rapture, all hope is not lost. But because you either did not accept Jesus Christ or did not live for Him, you will have to shed your own blood to receive redemption at that time.

We are in the birth pains. When millions were killed by Stalin, Hitler, Mao etc. Jesus did not return. Just because we are feeling the squeeze now and it isn't comfortable doesn't mean He is going to come and stop it...yet. There is a set time when the Father will send Jesus back. People all through time have faced amazing cruelty beginning with God's own prophets, disciples and apostles. We are no different. Some Christians may face persecution to the death before the rapture. Just because we Christians face persecution does not mean Jesus is going to come back and stop it.

Matt.10:28 - And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear Him which (Who) is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

Just remember, cling to Jesus Christ no matter what because our real life begins in eternity with Him.
