

NEW AGE Pt. 28: MANTRAS

Not only am I exposing the evil works of darkness that new age teaches and practices but I am also teaching Christians what not to do.

MANTRAS

I talked about mantras in Part 8 of this series because mantras are part of new age meditation. Let's have a refresher on mantras and take a closer look at them.

A mantra or mantram is a sacred utterance, a numinous sound (which means arousing spiritual or religious emotion), a syllable, word or (phone-eem) (distinct sound), or group of words in Sanskrit, Pali and other languages believed by practitioners to have religious, magical or spiritual powers. Some mantras have a syntactic structure (which is more along the lines of phrases and sentences) and literal meaning, while others do not. Farquhar concludes that mantras are a religious thought, prayer, sacred utterance, but also believed to be a spell or weapon of supernatural power.

A sacred utterance believed to have religious, magical or spiritual powers. A spell or weapon of supernatural power. This is witchcraft. Mantras are used as a summoning tool to connect the person using them to spiritual power and that spiritual power is evil spirits. The religion connected to mantras is not Biblical but ancient and of the occult from eastern pagan religions. Magic power is witchcraft and those that practice magic are witches. Witches are empowered through demons without at least one demon, a witch is powerless. When magic is spoken of it is always speaking of the kingdom of darkness. God hates witches and witchcraft of any kind and that's what magic is. (Exodus 22:18)

Look at some of these mantras:

What's Your Mantra Mean?

TM Mantra	Garland	Sastra	Tantra	Devata
ENG, EM, ENGA, EMA, AING, AIM, AINGA, AIMA (essentially the same bija mantra)	AIM	AIM	AIM	Saraswati, Devi of learning, music, speech, the fine arts
SHIRING, SHIRIM	SHREEM	S'RÍM	S'RÍM	Mahalakshmi or Lakshmi, Devi of wealth
HIRING, HIRIM	HREEM	HRÍM	HRÍM	Bhuvanesvari, Mahamaya
KIRING, KIRIM	KREEM	KRÍM	KRÍM	Devi Kalika
SHYAM, SHYAMA				Krishna
RAM, SHRIRAM (RAM plus SHRI , see below)	RAM	RAM	RAM	Agni, Deva of Fire

What's your mantra mean? Across the top are different types of meditations with mantras for each – L-R: transcendental meditation, garland meditation, sastra meditation, tantra meditation and devata meditation. Top Row – L-R: Eng, Em, enga, ema, aing, aim, ainga, aima, aim, aim, aim and finally we learn that is for the Hindu goddess saraswati – the goddess of learning, music, speech and the fine arts. We have a toothpaste that has been named after her. Next Row – L-R: Shiring, shirim, shreem, srin, srin and finally we learn this is the great goddess of wealth. Next Row – L-R: hiring, hirin, hreem, hrin, hrin, and at the end we learn that is for the goddess of the world or goddess or the universe or for mahamaya which would be the great enchantress associated with the Hindu goddess durga and in Buddhism it is also the name of queen maya, the mother of guatama Buddha. Next row L-R: kiring, kirin, kreem, krin, krin then we learn this is for the goddess kalika which is the same as the Hindu goddess of destruction – kali. Next row on the left is shyam, shyama and on the right tells us that is for a major Hindu deity, krishna. Bottom row L-R: Ram, shriram, ram, ram, ram and all of these are for agni the vedic god of fire.

This is what the guru's and instructors chant and they give these type of mantra's to those that come and sit and learn under them, to those that take their classes and practice meditation with them. People can also go online and get mantra's and it is going to be the same type of thing, names and praises to Hindu deities, fallen angels.

I want to read something to you from a court case in New Jersey where some parents objected to a Science of Creative Intelligence course that included transcendental meditation being taught in the school.

Similarly, defendants here do not teach that use of a mantra merely will bring about certain beneficial physiological and psychological changes; rather, defendants teach that a mantra is a vehicle which will bring a practitioner of Transcendental Meditation into direct contact with an unmanifest, pure, perfect, eternal, and infinite field of life, the field of pure creative intelligence. The fact that a practitioner of Transcendental Meditation may undergo certain physiological and psychological changes without believing that he is contacting with the field of pure creative intelligence, see, e. g., Essrig Deposition at 70, 71, 99, just as an eater of peyote can experience hallucinations without believing that he is contacting God, does not make defendants' teachings any less religious.

Similarly, defendants here do not teach that use of a mantra merely will bring about a certain beneficial physiological and psychological changes; rather, defendants teach that a mantra is a vehicle which will bring a practitioner of transcendental meditation into direct contact with an unmanifest, pure, perfect, eternal, and infinite field of life, the field of pure creative intelligence. Now essentially what the guru said is that a mantra is a means of connecting the person doing the meditation into direct contact with an unmanifest spirit which they said was pure, perfect, eternal, infinite field of life, the field of pure creative intelligence. This is not God. This unmanifest spirit that they will interact with is not The Father, not Jesus Who created everything and not The Holy Spirit, but it is evil spirits.

Mantras are chanted, sang, muttered or said silently in one's head or mind. Mantra's are names of Hindu deities which are fallen angels. People are given mantras to chant and what is really happening is they are chanting the names of fallen angels – so they are summoning them, invoking them by calling their names. They meditate on mantras, clearing their minds and focusing on the name of the fallen angel (which is the mantra). By doing all of this, they are inviting the fallen angel into their lives.

Please play from 23:00 to 24:18 – Simone was deep into new age. Listen to what she said about some of the things she was doing: STOP

She was also very interested in yoga and Hinduism. She loved the idea of Hindu gods and the colors and the exotic decorations of everything was a part of what brought her there. But there was also something very kind of interesting and kind of mystical about those things. Anything mystical and magical was very appealing to her. There was a time she was going to yoga 5 times a week. She liked kirtan yoga, singing and chanting. She loved the resonance of the chanting. She was saying words that she didn't know what they meant to gods that she didn't understand. She thought she understood a little but not like what she understands now. She did not understand about who the gods are. She just liked it. And this is how almost every single person in her life is too – doing the same things. (about 1 min's)

<http://www.threeheartchurch.org/index.php/sermons/sermon/262-testimony-of-a-former-witch-and-new-ager>

I praise God He drew Simone out of new age and back to Himself through Christ. I praise God He led her here to share her testimony with all of us. She had a fascination for these different things. Magic is very appealing but I'm not sure it would be as appealing if people were told the truth about it right up front, that it revolves around interaction with demons and that is how it all works.

She mentioned liking kirtan, the resonance of the chanting. It is powerful when you get a group of people all singing or chanting the same things and I mean powerful spiritually and powerful strength of frequencies. (Joshua ch.6) She said she was saying words she didn't know, to gods she didn't know much about. That's what a lot of people do, they get into these different things and just go along with the chanting and singing not even realizing what they are saying and what the consequences are.

There were so many things from Simone's testimony that I really had no clue what it was and kirtan was one of them.

Kirtan is a form of devotional music and chanting, originating in India, that involves call-and-response singing of mantras and hymns, often with musical accompaniment. It's a practice used to connect with the divine, cultivate inner peace, and foster community through the power of sound.

The chants used in kirtan are often mantras, which are sacred phrases or sounds believed to have spiritual power. These can be in Sanskrit or other languages, and may focus on deities or qualities like love, compassion, or peace. Some of the research I looked at said it is singing praise to deities. Kirtan is not holy so when we read that it is considered sacred, we realize it is in worship of satan and the fallen angels. Any worship that is not to God is to the fallen angels.

As I've been teaching about new age you should be able to pick out the new age speak in the definition. Connecting with the divine. I never call God the divine. I call Him I Am, or God The Father or Father God etc. but never just the divine. I don't call Jesus that either. And you notice it speaks of inner peace. Without Jesus as the center of your life you are never going to have real and true peace, He's the Prince of Peace. (Isaiah 9:6, John 14:27-29) People want peace and are searching for it and new age capitalizes on that, it is used as a selling point and as a doorway to demonic connection.

Yoga's superhighway to the divine: kirtan chanting This is a picture of a kirtan session. They are not raising their hands to The Father or to Jesus but to Hindu deities. They are using their hands to make what are called mudras which I will cover later on in this series. The word yoga means “to yoke” in Sanskrit and when you practice yoga, you are yoking to Hindu gods and chanting is another layer added in to secure the connection. A superhighway means you can speed and get there faster than usual. There are no shortcuts to God but they are not speaking of God here but rather fallen angels.

*Please play from about 2:20 to 5:10 We are about to watch Heidi Baker showing the practice of mantra’s and chanting inside of a church. STOP

She begins with a false vision so that she can get the people to do what she wants them to since they believe she is a minister of God’s. She says she sees a mountain of provision of anointing, the more you give away the more you will receive says the lord. (Not Biblical) She then instructs the people there to take the crown on their heads and place it on someone else. (spiritually) And she says they are just gonna get wrecked all over the room. You are going to take it and you’re going to put it on somebody’s else’s head and then you are going to say more lord. She then begins to demonstrate this by placing her hands on a young man’s head and begins to yell – more lord. Then the guy is shaking and lays over and she begins to chant “legacy” 8 times over him. Then she begins to yell “fire.” She tells the people to place fire on the other peoples heads. Then she speaks demonic tongues and goes back to chanting “legacy.” Then she tells the people to prophecy over the people. She instructs the people that whatever anointing they have on their life they place it on “them” and they say 10 times. *(about 3 min’s)

She is imparting evil spirits on those who are participating in this. They are receiving the same anointing that is on her which is demonic. This is what an apostate church looks like. This church has gone away from God or He never was there to begin with. These are ungodly practices. Not only is she not a real minister of God but she is also teaching the congregation to lay hands on each other and impart evil spirits as well. None of this is Biblical and I caution you no matter what church you are in or attend to be sure the minister is godly because whatever minister you submit to, you will receive from whatever anointing they have on their life. Don't just allow anybody to lay hands on you. The Bible also teaches that only God's ministers and elders are to lay hands on anyone (James 5:14-15) – this whole service is out of order and under an ungodly anointing. A real minister would never just yell fire and believe The Holy Spirit is going to respond to that. What non-sense.

The word she was chanting, her mantra – legacy – there is a specific demon or demons answering to that. She kept drawing more demons into the place and into those that allowed her to touch them and minister to them. And the one guy that was really getting the brunt of it looked like he was in agony. That's not God's Spirit and that is not the way God moves. If you have attended a service like this you need to repent and ask God's forgiveness and ask Him to cleanse your life from all demonic activity from doing that.

I want to go back to The Beatles for a moment because they were involved with mantras and chanting. All the people on the world's stage are freemasons. High level freemasons worship lucifer who is the sun god. The scarab beetle was a powerful symbol of sun worship in ancient Egypt, specifically associated with the god Khepri, the god of the rising sun. Egyptians believed the beetle's behavior of rolling dung balls mirrored the sun's daily journey across the sky. Now you see the initiated name of the band – The Beatles and what it means in freemasonry.

Using hand signs to show us where they got their talent and who they serve with the 666 hand sign as well as the devil horns.

Remember the Beatles learned transcendental meditation from Maharishi Mahesh and they went to India to get more empowered for the job that satan had for them to do in influencing America and especially the youth of America to do what they were doing. One article I read called it a “cultural revolution.”

Listen to what George Harrison said about his first meeting with the yogi. On August 24th, all of us, except Ringo, attended the lecture given by Maharishi at the Hilton Hotel. I got the tickets. I was actually after a mantra. I had got to the point where I thought I would like to meditate; I'd read about it and I knew I needed a mantra – a password to get through into the other world. And, as we always seemed to do everything together, John and Paul came with me.

George wanted a mantra, he said it was a password to get through into the other world. He's talking about the name of a fallen angel that would be given to him to chant and use as a gateway to connect with that particular demon and with the kingdom of darkness. That's "the other world" he was gaining access to.

George continuing: Each individual life state has its own rhythm. So they give you a word or sound – mantra – and by using this, the whole idea is to transcend to the subtlest level of thought. And the mantra becomes more subtle and more subtle until finally you transcend even the mantra. Then you find yourself at this level of pure consciousness.

The Interviewer asked: Is there actually anything you use to get back to the subject if you find earthly or irrelevant thoughts intruding?

John Lennon answered: Yes, you just sort of sit there and you let your mind go wherever it goes. Whatever you're thinking about, you just let it go. At the moment you realize you've been thinking, you introduce the mantra or the vibration again, just to take over from the thought. You don't limit it or use your willpower; you replace the thought with the mantra.

This is mind manipulation and it is not of God. He expects us to be sober minded.

1 Peter 5:8 - Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

Stay alert, don't manipulate your mind, be spiritually vigilant. The devil deceives through these type of practices and devours those that fall for it. Not everyone makes it out of this type of stuff. When you are not in Christ, you are fair game for the devil to do whatever he wants and he can kill you. He can kill compromised Christians. When you get off into ungodly practices, you are compromised.

Earlier in part one of this teaching, we learned that New Agers believe in a variety of semi-divine non-human entities, such as angels and masters with whom humans can communicate, particularly by channeling through a human intermediary. (Deut.18:9-15) This is what chanting mantras does. It is a way for the New Ager to channel demons who they believe are angels or masters. Fallen angels will masquerade (2 Cor.11:4) in whatever way they need to in order to deceive those that are not standing firm in Christ. Satan mocks everything God does and who He is. God said He would dwell in His people.

2 Cor.6:16 - And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

Satan and the fallen angels want to dwell in people. God said He would live in His people, so Satan wants to achieve that goal. The fallen angels want a human host, they want to be summoned into the world we live in so they can cause chaos and destruction and keep those they deceive away from truth, away from Christ. Misery loves company and they want to take as many with them to hell as they can.

CLOSING

Exodus 20:3 - Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

Everyone doing new age knowingly or in ignorance are serving other gods. They are in idolatry against God.

The angels are considered gods but they are not God Himself Who is over all things because He created all things through Christ. God warns His children all through time not to serve the fallen angels. No holy angel would ever receive worship, in fact, they always point the person who wants to worship them to God instead. (Rev.19:10 & 22:9)
