

ASTRAL PROJECTION Pt. 2: RAUNI KILDE, JOHANNA MICHAELSEN, TEST the SPIRITS, DECEPTION

Remember astral projection, astral travel, soul travel and out of body experiences are all the same thing.

*Please play from 27:54 to 35:26 Let's listen as Rauni Kilde shares about one of her out of body experiences. STOP

She talks about the energy body (the soul). Our energy body is eternal. Einstein said energy only changes form it doesn't disappear. The interviewer says, but it isn't as provable as something you can see. It's not as material as what is happening in the world. It isn't as provable as vaccines, or political or financial systems etc. Getting out of your body is a military question number one. It's military. Because they use it for espionage. Military secrets are not delivered normally to the general public. Nobody knows. Right. But those who have had out of body experiences themselves because they've been in a car accident or during an operation because that happened to her. Then she shares her OBE during the operation. Here is what she shared written as if she is speaking: I was in an operation under narcosis and all of a sudden my energy body left. And I was a young doctor. It was incredible because I was floating exactly as a copy of my physical body. But it looked like skim milk. And it was floating toward the ceiling and I was looking down and good lord I could see the surgeon who had opened my stomach and was operating on me. And I thought oh good lord. I'd never seen myself like that before of course. The interviewer said, that's not a pretty sight either is it? No, but I was a doctor so I wasn't shocked in that way. But when he took the scalpel, the surgeon to cut, I tried in my astral body, in my energy body I tried to prevent him. I tried to say, hey – hey, don't do that. Because I have an abnormal anatomy and if you do that you're going to cut an artery. But of course he couldn't hear me, of course he couldn't see me so he cut and all I saw was blood that went straight to the ceiling. Interviewer, but you didn't feel anything? No, the energy didn't because he was operating on the physical body and not the energy body of course. The blood went to the ceiling and then I had a near death experience. It felt like I went through a tunnel and then there was light. Interviewer, so it can also happen through a spiritual meditation, right, and leaving the body a lot of people are into the spiritual and healing, a lot of clairvoyants talk about it that it can happen through meditation. Is that something you know about? Yeah, it's the same thing. You get out in different ways but I got out through the operation. What happened was very interesting. It changed my life totally because all of a sudden I saw there was a sea of white pearls. I mean, it was just an experience. Then I saw a black pearl way way behind. And I couldn't understand. And a being of light came in front of me. And He was so bright that I had to kneel. And it looked like, well I'm a Lutheran by birth so it looked like Jesus' figure. And it said, because the black pearl, I said what is that? It's your husband and I was told we're going to get a divorce, because he's too far behind. Not because he was bad but because we are on different frequencies. Ok and then, this light being looking like Jesus you know like Statue of Liberty it was so big. And I couldn't look because it (the light) was so strong. It said, it's nothing great to be a doctor. Because I was a young doctor and I was proud of it. And then it showed my whole life what's going to happen. And I couldn't understand of course. And then I came back to the body and I wake up. Then I said I have seen this. And the doctors and nurses said oh yeah, yeah you have lost so much blood. It's ok. (To pacify her.) Interviewer, but if you saw Jesus, a lot of people who see Jesus would think of it as like a revelation and a proof that He exists. A religious proof isn't it, is that how you felt at the time? No, I just felt the light. But if I had been a Muslim according research on Near Death Experiences I probably would have seen Muhammad. If I was a Buddhist then I would have seen Buddha. It depends on your cultural background how you experience when you are in other dimensions. Interviewer, so it's about what you've been told life is, what your upbringing has been like, what you've been brought up as a Christian, Muslim, Jew, Buddhist, Hindu etc. Yes, that's right. Interviewer, and then you see those gods. Well isn't that too obvious? Well I don't know, I didn't know what I was going to experience. But in general you can say if your atheist, that comes from research too, you just see the light a being of light. And what does the being of light number one tell you? It says what have you done with your life? And your life from birth into this body unto the moment that you are out because of a accident or whatever. So everything you have said, everything you have experienced just goes like a film, (motions across the table) like this. A lot of people have said that kind of experience when they have been near death. Exactly, what have you done with your life? And then you see where you've done wrong and thought wrong and hey, there was not good and this was good. And you are sort of corrected in a way, you want to make good. And sometimes you get a chance to will be on the other side or will you come back to earth, to your body? And generally people don't want to come back to the body because this is not a very elevated planet. There are a lot of people who are very ignorant here. We are aggressive and we don't use our brain capacity we don't use 90 % of our brain capacity. So most people experience that they don't want to go back because it is harmonious, it is beautiful surroundings in the other frequency where you are. Interviewer says it is heaven and she says, yes we can call it heaven. He asks, how about hell? She says there are experiences that are negative about 1% and the people who experience very much negativity they are meeting people that are like them very negative. But, they can call it hell if you want I mean there is no hell, it's all in your mind of course. But when they come back they usually change. They see that they don't want to go to another frequency that is so negative. So your own thoughts, your own expectations, they decide how you experience the other dimensions. And then you have a chance to correct all the mistakes...*(about 7.5)

This was her first out of body experience. I believe this one was helped along from the drugs she was given for surgery and her new age practices. After this one she had other out of body experiences but she did those on purpose through focusing her energy to force her soul out.

She said the surgeon could not hear her trying to warn him and he could not see her. She did not feel any pain or anything because she wasn't in her physical body.

She then said she had a near death experience while she was in the astral plane because of all the blood she had lost. She was in a tunnel and saw a bright light.

We hear this one a lot, don't we? She saw this sea of pearls and then there was this super bright light. She said it seemed like Jesus and was so bright she had to kneel. She did not seem to be in awe or reverence of Jesus or blown away that He was standing there. When the interviewer, who is a new ager himself, asked about if it was Jesus and was saying it must give validity to Jesus being real. She just said oh, a Muslim would see Muhammad, a Buddhist would see Buddha etc. like it was no big deal that she supposedly saw Jesus. No worship, no praise even no honoring Him in the interview at this point.

In researching Project Blue Beam they have plans to project an image that would seem to be a phenomenon in the sky to deceive people and get them to obey the antichrist. Muslims will see Muhammed, Buddhist will see Buddha, Christians will see what they think is Jesus. So she believes in the spirit realm you just see whoever you have been taught about or claim to believe in.

She said it depends on your cultural background how you experience when you are in other dimensions. The demons study us and they know what to show people and what experiences to give them to keep them on satan's hook.

She said she was Lutheran by birth so as to explain why she saw Jesus. No one is born into Christianity. Sounds like she was raised to be a Lutheran. We do not inherit Christianity from our parents. We are not automatically saved.

Lutheranism is a false religion, closely related to Catholicism. Lutherans baptize babies which is not Scriptural. I spoke on that in the sermon I gave recently on Baptism. They believe when taking Holy Communion that the wafer really is Jesus' flesh in your mouth and the wine really is His blood in your mouth when you drink it. These things are symbolic of His flesh and His blood. They are not able to spiritually discern what Jesus was saying about eating His flesh and drinking His blood. To make it literal is a perversion against God. They believe in confessing their sins to a man in order to be forgiven. This is enough for you to understand that it is a false religion, it is not Scriptural. So even though she stated she was a Lutheran, her life was already opened to demons even before she went into New Age and other things.

You are not automatically saved, at some point each one of us has to hear the gospel message and truly understand in order to come to Jesus and be born again from above. We make the decision to come to Jesus with our own free will and live a changed life or reject Him and continue walking our own path which ultimately leads to damnation.

So already we see some deception because she wasn't living for Christ but yet supposedly there He was in this Out of Body Experience. Was it really Him? He told her that the black pearl she saw was her husband and that they were going to get a divorce because he was on the wrong frequency. What on Earth? But in her New Age thinking, this made perfect sense. She said this experience changed her life. I bet this prompted her to pursue a divorce. Scripture tells us to test the spirits. (1 John 4:1)

God hates divorce (Malachi 2:16) that's how strongly He feels about it. Jesus told them it was never God's intention for people to be getting divorced. (Matt.19:8-9) God is so against it that it is considered adultery for those who do it and marry someone else. There are certain circumstances where God will allow divorce but being on a different frequency isn't one of them. So, when we test the spirit of what was speaking to her, we know it wasn't Jesus because it clashes with God's Word and Jesus is The Living Word of God.

She said out on the astral plane many times people are given an opportunity to stay there or to come back here and many of them choose to stay there because the place where we are is so bad. But she said the place where they are out in the spirit realm is harmonious, it is beautiful surroundings. Do you think satan can make a beautiful mirage or a beautiful place to draw people to? If he can disguise himself and masquerade as an angel of light (2 Cor.11:14) you better believe in the realm where he works he can make it look like whatever he wants it to in order to deceive people.

Now how could you know of anyone choosing to stay? If they stayed, then you would not hear from them again. But the demons can imitate a person through a familiar spirit and say they chose to stay and it's great so as to keep the New Age community deceived into believing that it is ok to take the offer to stay. God is not the One making the offer and that means the ones who choose to stay are not entering into heaven. Heaven is God's domain and where His Kingdom is, Scripture calls it the third heaven. That means this place where people are choosing to stay is something else. Essentially they are making a deal with the devil, he's the one with the offer on the table – not God. The people doing this are in league with demons, that's how they got out of their body in the first place. If they choose to stay then they die in their sin against God.

There's another layer of deception going on too, you can tell that Rauni isn't a Christian because the things she says and believes don't line up with God's Word yet she believed the being represented Jesus. That could easily give comfort to someone who isn't even saved, they would just think it confirms that they really are saved and the way they are living their life is just fine and that heaven is in the bag already when the truth is they don't even know Jesus.

The interviewer asked her if this place was heaven and she said you could call it that. Then when he asked about hell she said well there is no hell, it is only in your mind. That's another witness to us that she's not a Christian.

Matt.25:41 - Then shall He say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from Me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

Mark 9:47-48 – (Jesus speaking here) And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

Rev.20:14 - And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

Hell is a real place, not a state of mind. (Isaiah 5:14) After all judgement is finished at The Great White Throne Judgment, then all those who have died and who did not love Jesus, they will be thrown into the lake of fire forever and the place where they were, hell, will even be thrown into the lake of fire.

Nothing that she experienced was by God's hand. Her life was demonized before she ever astral projected because she was already practicing New Age and occult things.

Let's switch gears for a moment.

*Please play from 4:54 to 22:44 and from 27:17 to 31:52. Johanna Michaelsen has one of the most powerful testimonies about being deceived that I've heard. I have shared it in the past but we need to hear it again. This is not about astral projection, but trust me it will tie in. Listen to this powerful testimony you guys. STOP

Her father came across an article for The Silva Mind Control Group, now called The Silva Method. It is in 129 countries all over the world. They are a huge part of New Age mind development of inner genius human potential. They help you harness the alpha brainwave frequency of the mind where you can express the genius potential within you. To diagnose illness from a distance. To control impulses and habit pattern. To gain mastery over your memory. Where you can contact your wise person, your special guide, your special leader. This is where her life took a turn about. At this time she was a committed believer. She had accepted Jesus Christ and knew according to God's Word He was her Lord and Savior, her way to God and that He was indeed Who Scripture presented Him to be. She was told she needed a guide, she thought what better guide can I have but Jesus. So she used techniques that are virtually identical to techniques being employed by the contemplative prayer movement, to inner healing movement, as well as by witches, and pagans and neopagans and spiritist around the world. We were counted down, taken to our beautiful special place the place we created in silence. Identical to the place of silence promoted by the contemplatives. In that place of silence, that beautiful still place of ecstasy and experience. And a peace unlike anything I have ever experienced. Where years of terror and being buffeted by forces I have no control over are suddenly now pushed in the background. She is being taught through this group of people how to gain mastery over these forces and how to establish herself in control over the dark beings and weave the white light of protection around herself. And how to call on her special guide. As a sincere Christian, she invited Jesus to be her guide. She was ignorant back then. The Bible is spoken of with great reverence. Her heart sought to be close to God and she was honoring Him with her lips but in her actions and what she was getting involved with she was going in the exact opposite direction from God's Word. She counted down and there in her special silence was Jesus. Just like people in the inner healing movement are being introduced to Him as we speak. There He is all glorious and shining and peaceful. She thought, I know I've got a good imagination, this can't really be Jesus. She thought about what Jesus said about standing at the door and knocking. She thought she surely didn't have the real Jesus. So she prayed and said Lord, if this is from You, if You have really come into my special psychic laboratory, my special place of silence, then You show me and confirm it to me, oh God I just want You. The laboratory door came down again and there is Jesus shining in glory but now He is doing something bizarre. He shows up with the beautiful glow and the ecstatic feeling but there's something different about this Jesus. There's wooly matted hair and mud and filth and gore dripping from the face and the eyes are blazing and blood is dripping. This is a werewolf like in a B movie. She said it scared the daylights out of her. She said Lord what is this, You are frightening me. This being, this guide, this wise counselor who came into her place of silence said oh my little one, we just want you to understand that not everything that appears to be evil on the surface really is. When you evolve, when you get to be wiser, you'll see us as we really are. She said because she was a true believer, God was actually answering her prayer. She said Lord reveal to me what this really is. Is this Jesus You or is it something else. God revealed it but she said she was too dumb and too ignorant of The Word of God to know that satan disguises himself as an angel of light. She said she was too dumb to know that his prophets can come as wolves in sheep's clothing looking like the real thing looking like the real Jesus. Through these people she embraced the whole thing. Sarah Bernhardt was there too. Johanna began to be a star pupil and could read cases like Edward Casey did – reading or seeing illness on people from a far. She was so excited because now when the dark would come she could drive it away. Through these people she met a woman in Mexico City whom for 40 years had been doing amazing things. She would go into a full trance state in which another being would come and take full possession of her. She gives the name of the entity. The entity said he came back to basically fulfill his destiny by doing good things. Under the power of this spirit, sitting in front of an altar that had a crucifix on it and a picture of Jesus other weird things as well odd packages wrapped in dark paper with string tied around it and bells tied over it a rusty hunting knife a pair of scissors and a statue of Cuauhtemoc, the Aztec prince through whom this woman did these miracles. But the pic. of Jesus is what drew Johanna. She got there late but when she got there she called on Jesus and said she just wanted to serve Him and asked Him to use her to bring Him glory in this place. The old woman was puffing a cigarette. The old woman had blood up to her elbows and Johanna said to herself, oh god, what happens in this place? She asked God again to use her and said she was willing. The old woman called her a medium and told her she had now encountered her mission in life. She began training. The spirit said that she had been selected to take the old woman's role when she died. The spirit told Johanna that she would take the role as the spirit's flesh when the old woman died. The spirit said it would use her as it used the old woman. She began training and worked with her for 14 mos. She was convinced this was from God. She was working as a medium. The old woman had prophesied that Johanna would be full trance medium and operating as a psychic surgeon within a certain amount of time. She could see the spirits standing around and she followed the techniques of guided imagery visualization and lists a whole list of people who teach and follow this. The whole inner healing contemplative prayer movement teaches this. Something kept short circuiting. God kept her from becoming a fully possessed trans medium. Not for her lack of trying. She was working as a psychic and being part of the operations and assisted in over 200 and stopped counting. She saw astonishing things. And was convinced that because the phenomena I had my hands in and I can't prove to you that while I had my hands in someone they were talking to me. I can't prove to you that I saw a vertebrae removed and replaced by cadaver bone, I can't. And she goes on with more of these type of examples. The man is lying on the cot and hermanito (little brother – the spirit) raised his knife to the altar where the pic. was, where the crucifix of Jesus is. They welcomed the spirit with The Lord's prayer. He would get mad when the old lady would paint her nails because he was using her body. He was very demanding and cruel. He let one of her children die and she almost stopped working with him. The man with the inoperable brain tumor is on the cot, hermanito (the old woman) raises the knife in salute and then plunges it into the skull while he's awake and while Johanna is speaking to him. Opens it up, reaches in and pulls out a revolting mass. There was nothing fake or trickery going on there. This was real. The smell, the stench fills the room. The man could feel the hands in the head. The eyes crossed and the spirit then straightened out this problem. She followed up with these patients and followed up on them. Dr's were bringing their own patients in from the states. A doctor from Mexico City was also was one of the assistants. So she is with this woman 14 mos. and she is convinced because the experience is so overwhelming and so different from her experiences when she was in the occult, the scary part of the occult. She was convinced this was from God because she loved Jesus, because she recited The Lord's prayer, because there was a crucifix on the altar. I knew enough of The Bible when she was introduced to Edith Shaeffer and Francis Shaeffer – had never heard of him. We all know the buffoons and false teachers but we don't know the truly godly men. Edith Shaeffer was trying to get Johanna out of what she was involved in. Johanna was justifying what she was doing based on the good results she was seeing. Cataracts gone, tumors removed, paralysis gone etc. She felt like this lady could not identify a genuine miracle. Edith didn't say very much. / She was told to ask God to show you the truth about what you're into. She said she fought through the oppression and they prayed for her. She finally came to the point that she said God, if I'm wrong, if there is something that is not of You in what I'm involved with and You show me. I'm willing to give up: the power, working as a medium and pursuing my work with the old woman, the ecstatic visions and the glorious experiences, the manifestations, willing to let it all go. But she told God You better show me good. She said don't pray that unless you really really want to know. God pulled back that veil of deception that had been woven around her, that she had allowed to be woven around her. Because of her deliberate participation in things she later found out God calls abomination. It literally almost cost her her life. She was on the edge of the mountain on her way to Sheila's house when the demons were allowed to manifest. With a terror and intensity that she had never experienced. They almost killed her that night. Literally a fist came out of the dark as she was walking along the side of the Alps and knocked her forward. She started calling on the Jesus that she was taught by Silva Mind Control that she encountered in her psychic laboratory. The voices she could hear were incoherent at first but then she could hear them saying “we’re going to kill you.” She kept calling on the fake Jesus to come and save her. The voices laughed and shrieked even louder and said, he can’t help you. We’re going to kill you! I believed them. Finally I picked myself up and I heard in a flash something Sheila had said about believing in the true Jesus. She was not believing in Jesus of The Bible, but one that was the greatest medium of the 7th sphere, her avatar, her guru. Let’s not be narrow minded or dogmatic about. (sarcasm) Her Jesus was the same as the one the new agers push in contemplative prayer etc. So when she suddenly realized maybe she was calling on the wrong Jesus, she realized the rage she was having was because now she had to figure out what Jesus she was going to serve. That’s when all hell broke loose. Only then could she ask God for forgiveness for following another Jesus and another gospel. *(about 22 min’s)

She talked about churches who are teaching many things she was doing. These are New Age, cult churches fronting as godly churches.

Praise God for His mercy on her life when she ignorantly allowed demons to use her body in these psychic surgeries. She said she was buffeted by forces that she had no control over and through meditation suddenly they are now pushed in the background. That’s because she was getting deeper into occult things so they were happy to give her a break and make it seem that she had power over them. So we see she had demons in her life already. When you live a righteous life God doesn’t allow the demons to beat you up. So we know she had opened spiritual doors to Satan’s kingdom in her life before she ever got with this group. She was further demonized by practicing the meditation and they were lying to her all along. She liked the experiences and so she chose to believe what she was being told.

She was a baby Christian who wasn’t studying God’s Word. When they told her she needed a guide that should have been a red flag. Our guide is The Holy Spirit.

She had a nice idea about her guide being Jesus but you don't connect with Him through meditation. You don't connect with God, Jesus or The Holy Spirit through meditation. You will only connect with demons through meditation.

2 Timothy 2:15 - Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

It is for our own well being that we are told to study God's Word so that we will live lives that please God.

She counted down and there in her special silence was Jesus. She said, Just like people in the inner healing movement are being introduced to Him as we speak. The people doing all of this New Age stuff aren't really encountering Jesus at all. Sozo, inner healing contemplative prayer etc. is all New Age.

She said, This being, this guide, this wise counselor who came into her place of silence said oh my little one, we just want you to understand that not everything that appears to be evil on the surface really is. When you evolve, when you get to be wiser, you'll see us as we really are. I'd say what she was already seeing should have been enough but somehow she just pressed on with all of it. Also, by telling her just because it looks evil doesn't mean it is, that was another way of getting her not to question things even scary things.

God tells us to avoid even the appearance of evil. (1 Thess.5:22) But see, she did not know His Word so she just got deeper and deeper into all of it.

Deut.18:10-14 - There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee. Thou shalt be perfect with the LORD thy God. For these nations, which thou shalt possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath not suffered thee so to do.

She was practicing witchcraft to the max. She was being used as a medium, allowing a demon to possess her body and speak through her. She was learning the ropes. She was doing New Age meditation, manifesting and being used psychically etc.

God forbids His children to practice any of these things and here she was being a medium where a familiar spirit, a demon was using her body in these psychic surgeries and when the old woman died the main spirit they were working with said he was going to take her body and begin to use her. She must have had other spirits using her at this time.

She was seeing amazing things being done through these psychic surgeries. But they were lying signs and wonders done by demonic powers (2 Thess.2:9) and not by Jesus. The demons laughed when she called on the “jesus” she created in her own mind and in her own image. They laughed and kept up the torment because they knew “that “ jesus – was just a demon.

Rauni saw a false Jesus and Johanna saw a false Jesus. That’s what’s waiting for those who purposely go into the astral realm, a demonic experience.

2 Thess.2:10 - And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

New Living Translation

He will use every kind of evil deception to fool those on their way to destruction, because they refuse to love and accept the truth that would save them.

NLT – He will use every kind of evil deception to fool those on their way to destruction, because they refuse to love and accept the truth that would save them.

This is key, what is the truth that would save them? It is Christ.

Satan’s end-time counterfeit will include persuasive signs, false claims, and unrighteous influence designed to imitate divine power while opposing Christ.

Jesus warned that false christs and false prophets would perform great signs and wonders in the days leading to His return (Matthew 24:24). Such deception will seek to turn people from God's revealed truth and establish allegiance to the lawless one.

Those who are perishing remain under God's judgment because they stand apart from Christ. Paul elsewhere contrasts those who are perishing with those being saved through the message of the cross (1 Corinthians 1:18). Their vulnerability to deception does not arise from a lack of available truth, but from their continued rejection of it.

God's truth is centered in Jesus Christ, who is Himself "the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14:6). Refusing to love the truth involves more than intellectual disbelief; it is a settled resistance to God's word and the salvation offered through His Son. Like those described in Romans 1:18–25, they suppress truth in favor of unrighteousness.

Both of these women were content with the "jesus" they saw, Rauni wasn't questioning anything and in fact didn't revere Him at all. Johanna was content to make Him over into what she wanted Him to be. They were both deceived. There are people all over the world being deceived by false christs just like the ones they encountered.

Salvation is genuinely offered through faith in Christ and His finished work. Those who receive the gospel are delivered from judgment, but those who reject it remain in their sins. The coming deception will reveal the tragic outcome of refusing the truth God has made known.

Jesus shed His blood and sacrificed Himself in our place so we could be forgiven and redeemed from the devil's hand and brought back into a right standing and relationship with our Heavenly Father. This is the truth that saves those who receive it and embrace it. But there are many that refuse to believe in Jesus, refuse to receive the truth about Him and come to Him and submit and surrender to Him completely. God will draw them but eventually He will let them be deceived and have what they wanted.

CLOSING

There is not one single thing that is strong delusion. There are already many things that God is using as strong delusion against those that don't love the truth which is Christ. It doesn't seem like Rauni came to Christ but praise God that Johanna saw the light and got out of the occultic new age practices she was in and is now spreading the truth and standing for Christ!

Warning to the church – just because someone knows truth does not mean they are a Christian. Rauni knew the truth about many things but she was wrapped up in New Age. She was a targeted individual but she was not a Christian. Not every targeted individual is a Christian. In fact, I usually find it is just the opposite. Rauni was a truther but she did not know the whole truth. Jesus is the TRUTH.
